

Work of the Women's Clubs...

Ladies' Literary.

One of the largest audiences of the year was present at the Ladies' Literary club Friday afternoon to listen to one of the most delightful programmes in the history of the club. Much interest was aroused by the announcement that the two best stories in the short story contest were to be read. It was not known who the writers of the stories were, but the members were not surprised when they learned that Mrs. Morris L. Ritchie and Mrs. F. C. Kelsey were the successful competitors. Mrs. Ritchie's story, "The Third Bilingual," is produced in this issue of The Tribune, and will doubtless be read with as great pleasure as it was listened to on Friday. The story was read by Mrs. C. E. Richards, whose ability in this line is not surpassed by anyone in the city, and her interpretation of it added much to its charm.

"The Subjective Weeding" was the subject of Mrs. Kelsey's story, which was a peculiar one, dealing with the mediumistic theory, with a love story running through it. The story was greatly enjoyed by those who heard it.

But a treat was in store for the members which had not been announced—an informal talk by Professor S. H. Clark on the duties of women along educational and civic lines. Though brief, the talk was a very interesting and aroused the club members as has seldom been done to a realization of what they may accomplish along the lines set forth by the speaker.

A most delightful feature of the afternoon was the music. Mr. Weine gave two splendid violin solos, the "Andante" and "Finale" by Mendelssohn, with Arthur Shepherd as accompanist. Mr. Squires was accorded a hearty encore for his rendition of "Down in the Depths," in which his voice was heard to advantage.

A communication was read from the Denver Women's club asking that the Ladies' Literary club take some action toward endorsing the bill introduced by Congressman Shafroth at the last session of Congress calling for a national society for the protection of children and dumb animals, the board of directors to be appointed by the President of the United States, with branches in every State of the Union. A committee including Mrs. C. E. Allen, Mrs. Hugh Park and Mrs. W. R. Hutchinson was named.

At the meeting of the home and education section of the Ladies' Literary club, to be held one week from tomorrow afternoon at the clubhouse, Capt. Wood of the Salvation army is to address those present upon the new boy question and give his ideas of what he thinks can be done by the clubwomen of the city along the lines suggested by Mayor Morris in his message to the City Council. All club members are especially urged to attend this meeting whether they be members of the home and education section or not.

The next regular meeting of the club

Mrs. Frank C. Kelsey and Mrs. Morris L. Ritchie, the successful competitor in Ladies' Literary club short story contest. Mrs. Ritchie's story appears on page 5, part 4, of this paper.

will be a "Day with Mendelssohn and his Oratorios" and will be in charge of Mrs. Charles G. Plummer. Assisting in the programme will be such well-known artists as Mrs. Ellsworth Daggett, Miss Edna Dwyer, Miss Agatha Berkhoel, Mr. Copley and Mr. Graham, and a feast of good things in the way of music is looked for.

A short story by Mrs. Caroline Abbott Stanley, "Antonio's Last Estate," appears in the March Century. Mrs. Stanley was formerly a member of the Ladies' Literary club.

Members of the Shakespeare section will continue the reading of the sonnets at the regular meeting on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Next Friday afternoon the regular meeting of the current events and current literature section of the Ladies' Literary club will be held. Miss Paul will review "Rebecca" and Miss Jessup will give a paper on the "Modern Note in Literature."

The ladies of the home and education section will give a rummage sale on April 16th.

Woman's Club.
Dr. William Paden addressed the members of the Woman's club and their friends Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Guthrie.

The address was on Japanese Character and was a rare treat, not alone for the valuable information, but made especially interesting by Dr. Paden's quaint and delightful manner of address.

Reviewers.
The Reviewers will meet on Monday with Mrs. David Evans. The paper of the afternoon will be given by Mrs. C. G. Plummer upon "Little Journeys to the Homes of Eminent Women."

The paper will be followed by the annual election of officers.

The Cleofan.
All members are requested to be present at the annual business meeting of the Cleofan, to be held Tuesday afternoon, March 29th, at the home of Mrs. Charles Wells, 429 Second street.

Daughters of Utah Pioneers.
At a meeting of the Daughters of the Pioneers, held at the residence of Mrs. A. E. Hyde, 40 West North Temple street, Thursday afternoon, March 24th, 1904, it was decided that the annual business meeting of the society will be held on April 11, 1904, at 2 p. m., at the residence of the above named lady. All officers and members of the society are urged to be present. Following the business meeting a social will be held, at which an entertaining programme will be rendered.

LUCE IS AMBITIOUS TO KEEP WATER PURE

Benjamin D. Luce.

Benjamin D. Luce, the new Land and Water Commissioner, when asked what his policy would be while the incumbent of the office to which he has been appointed by the Mayor, said yesterday:

"It will be my object to see that there is a rigid enforcement of the ordinances in regard to the befoiling of the city's water sources. I consider this the most important duty of the Land and Water Commissioner, and any and all violations of the city ordinances will be vigorously prosecuted. It is my intention to inaugurate a new system of patrol of the canyons. Instead of detaching one man to patrol the entire length of Parley's canyon, my plan is to divide the work by having one deputy patrol the upper half and another the lower half. The first deputy will live up in the canyon, up about halfway; it will be his duty to make a trip each day to the water sources in the forenoon and down the canyon in the afternoon. The other deputy will leave the city each day and patrol up halfway, where he will meet the first man and receive his report. The lower patrolman will cross over the divide and come back down Emigration canyon. Later on I expect to establish a telephone in the canyon. The third deputy will patrol City Creek canyon.

"In regard to the exchange of the canal water with the farmers for the Parley's water, I will not invite any fight, but will rather try to conciliate the farmers. I want them to have all the water they are entitled to in their contract with the city, but I shall also insist upon the city's rights being subserved. I will begin work at once on the canal, cleaning and repairing it, so that it will be in good shape for the distribution of the waters when the irrigation season opens."

"LAST ROMP WITH THE TIGER."

EVANGELIST WILLIAMS WILL LECTURE ON HIS PERSONAL EXPERIENCES, IN THE WATERLOO M. E. CHURCH.

Rev. W. H. Williams of San Jose, Cal. (The John B. Gough of the American platform of today, as he is often called by the press) will deliver his great lecture, "The Last Romp With the Tiger," at the Second M. E. church, Waterloo, next Tuesday evening.

Mr. Williams is a preacher and evangelist of great power and eloquence, and has labored in many of the most prominent churches and Y. M. C. A. associations of the country, making an abiding impression upon the community at large for good. The speaker expresses himself in convincing language and handles his subject in a manner calculated to make a deep impression. His addresses can scarcely be excelled anywhere, being apt in illustration and with an experience that enables him to reach men.

The Fisherman's Institute of Gloucester, Mass., says of him, that he took the boys back, and twelve fishermen had to take ship and in the after meeting set sail for heaven.

Rev. George R. Stuart, co-laborer of San Jose, says he is a worthy man, and any favors shown him will be of service to the Master.

The Rams' Horn of Chicago, speaking of his lecture says: "The Last Romp With the Tiger" is great.

The San Francisco Examiner says he is a strong, realistic and convincing speaker.

"The Last Romp With the Tiger" is a masterly address, clear and strong—S. A. Steel, pastor Centenary M. E. church South, Richmond, Va.

The indications are that the house will be filled, and no doubt a great treat is in store for those who shall be fortunate enough to hear him.

GUY TRASK, 563 W. So. Temple, Salt Lake City.

Mr. Trask says: "I am a Locomotive Fireman on the O. S. L. Railroad, and as such I am required to be in perfect physical health, so when I found I was suffering intensely from Catarrh I went to a Salt Lake Doctor who has the reputation of being a Specialist on Catarrh and Eye and Ear diseases, and consulted him. My head and nose was stopped up, I had headaches over my eyes, continually, ringing in the ears, and a slight cough. This doctor charged me $25 for a month's treatment and did me absolutely no good. I then went to Dr. Shores & Shores—paid them $3 for a month's treatment (under their special offer), and began to get better inside of a week. I have improved steadily since, and today the HEAD NOISES ARE GONE, my head is CLEAR, headaches gone, and I feel like a new man, and I am glad to tell anyone about the case, and save them time and money seeking relief as I did. If you are sick my advice is GO TO DR. SHORES and get a cure and save time and money."

I will be pleased to have anyone call on me for verification of this statement.

OZENA.

OR FETID, BAD SMELLING CATARRH.

Some Information Purely and Simply for the benefit of Suffering Humanity Given by Dr. Shores, the "People's Doctors."

Ozena is a form or stage of Catarrh that for centuries has been the subject of much dispute, and is one of the most difficult conditions to cure. In ancient times one unfortunate enough to be a sufferer from it was excluded from the privileges of priesthood, and in more modern days it has actually been ruled sufficient ground for divorce.

It is known under a host of names, such as dysodia, rhinostenose, coryza foetida, fetid catarrh, dry catarrh, stinging, punalitis, rhinitis atrophica, rhinitis atrophica foetida, etc, but the most fitting of all appellations is perhaps the ancient one, ozena, which, in Greek, signifies a stench, and applied, means bad-smelling catarrh.

It occurs in all diseases of the mucous membrane of the nose, where there is an ulceration and catarrhal poison from neglect or mistreatment, eats through the mucous surface and causes death or rotting away of the bone. It may result, too, from single cold in the head by decomposition of the mucous discharges if proper care and treatment is not used to keep the mucous lining of the throat and nose clean and healthy. While it is not necessary that every case of simple catarrh should result in this horrible condition—ozena—it is an absolute fact that ozena or "stinking catarrh" is always the sequel or legacy of neglected or what amounts to the same, badly treated simple catarrh. Dr. Shores can cure you. If you will apply at once you will get Dr. Shores regular $5 a month treatment for $3. This is your opportunity.
